

Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Associated Builders & Contractors, Inc., Heart of America Chapter Announces Excellence in Construction Award Winners

November 3, 2022 – Associated Builders & Contractors, Inc., Heart of America Chapter announced the winners of their 2022 Excellence in Construction Awards program at the annual awards banquet held November 3, 2022 at Arrowhead Stadium in Kansas City, MO.

Winners were selected by a panel of judges who reviewed the project entries explaining safety practices, innovative solutions, and unique challenges among other judging criteria.

Seven category winners in subcontracting and thirteen category winners in general contracting were selected.

In the subcontracting categories, the winner in the Electrical Commercial category was Electrical Associates for the Fareway Meat Market project. The winner in the Electrical Industrial category was Electrical Associates for the Advanced Ambulatory Surgical Center. The winner in the Mechanical Commercial/Institutional – Over $5 Million category was Temp-Con LLC with the Project Marnie project. Thermaltech, Inc. won in the Mechanical Commercial/Institutional – Under $5 Million category with their work on the Beyond Meat Dry Blend project. There were three subcontractor finalists for Subcontractor Project of the Year. QuesTec Mechanical who won the Commercial category for their work on the Wentzville Middle School project. Lee Mechanical Contractors, the winner in the Industrial category for their project on the Geofortis Utah Pozzolan Plant. Hth companies, inc., who won in the Mechanical Industrial category for the Verbio VNV Insulation project.

In the general contracting categories, Nabholz won the Healthcare – Over $10 Million category for their work on the Belton Regional Medical Center ICU Addition project. The winner in the Healthcare – Under $5 Million category was also Nabholz for their work on the University of Missouri Molecular Imaging and Theranostics Center (MITC) project. The winner of the Industrial category was Fogel-Anderson Construction Co. for the US Engineering Metalworks project. Straub Construction won in the Institutional – Over $10 Million category with their project on the Park University Robert W. Plaster Free Enterprise Center. The winner in the Institutional – Under $10 Million category was also Straub Construction for their Journey Church International project. Crossland Heavy Contractors won the Public Works/Environmental – Over $5 Million category with their project on the Turkey Creek Pump Station Improvements. The winner in the Public Works/Environmental – Under $5 Million was also Crossland Heavy Contractors, with their South Wellfield Public Water Supply Well No. 13 project. The winner in the Renovation category was Straub Construction with Let It Fly Media project. Emery Sapp & Sons, Inc. won the Specialty – Over $10 Million category for their URBN Outfitters Kansas City Fulfillment Center project. The winner of the Specialty - Under $10 Million was MegaKC for their Koi & Alligator Pond Exhibit project. There were three general contractor finalists for General Contractor Project of the Year. Fogel-Anderson Construction Co., who won in the Commercial category for Price Chopper 17 at Bannister project. Emery Sapp & Sons, Inc., the winner of the Infrastructure: Heavy category for their I-49 McDonald County project. MW Builders, who won in the Residential category for the Woodstone at Metro North project.

The award of Top General Contractor went to Emery Sapp & Sons, Inc. for their I-49 McDonald County project. The Top Subcontractor was awarded to Lee Mechanical Contractors for their Geofortis Utah Pozzolan Plant project.

The Arthur C. Waugh Keystone Award went to Mark Bessmer of Henry Miller Mechanical. In the safety categories, the Subcontractor Safety Award went to Fatboy Electric, Inc. The General Contractor Safety Award went to Robinson Construction. The winner of the Ted Anderson Superior Safety Award was hth companies, inc.

###

Associated Builders & Contractors, Inc. (ABC) is a national trade association representing more than 21,000 merit shop contractors, subcontractors, material suppliers and related firms across the United States. ABC membership represents all specialties within the U.S. construction industry and is comprised primarily of firms that perform work in the industrial and commercial sectors of the industry. The ABC Heart of America Chapter serves Missouri and Kansas. For further information, visit www.abcksmo.org or contact (816) 994-5990.